KELLEY HUGHES OF COLDWELL BANKER EARNS HIGHLY SOUGHT-AFTER RELOCATION CERTIFICATION

Cartus Network Certified Agent Advantage offers Broker Network agent specialized expertise to assist relocation transferees.

(EVANSTON, ILLINOIS), (APRIL 4, 2007) – Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage today announced that Kelley Hughes has achieved Cartus Network Marketing & Relocation Specialist certification. This two-year certificate is part of the Certified Agent Advantage program, a professional standard available exclusively to members of the Cartus Principal Broker Network. The Cartus Broker Network is the leading network of real estate brokers serving the clients and customers of Cartus.

Cartus requires qualified Network agents to become certified as relocation experts by participating in one or more Certified Agent Advantage courses, passing a written exam upon completion, and undergoing a comprehensive background check. The course, which Kelley Hughes has successfully completed, covers issues surrounding the purchase of a destination house, as well as the most effective techniques for helping clients research communities, locate their new home, and settle into their new area anywhere in the United States.

“As members of the Cartus Broker Network, we strive to deliver Top Block Service¹ to every client,” said Kelley Hughes, Agent. “The Certified Agent Advantage program helps to differentiate exceptional agents, and provides us with a wider range of resources and career growth opportunities.”

Kelley is a four-year veteran of residential real estate with a career sales volume of more than $22 Million.
